

I would like to go on the record that I support HB 5423, An Act Concerning Dissection Choice, that would allow students in Connecticut to opt out of classroom animal dissection and experimentation. Dissection is not essential to education, and superior, alternative means to study anatomy and biology are available. Enlightened students with ethical objections should be respected and honored.

Kathryn Farnsworth
P.O. Box 147
Northford, CT 06472
(203) 494-2167